Setting up of Food Processing Industry in Etawah, Uttar Pradesh

3555. SHRI ISH DUTT YADAV:
SHRI RAM GOPAL YADAV:

Will the Minister of FOOD PROCESSING INDUSTRIES be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government had announced in 1989-90 its decision to establish Food Processing Industries in Etawah;

(b) if so, what steps have been taken by Government with regard thereto; and

(c) whether there is any proposal to be finalised with the Government to establish such indutries in Etawah, Uttar Pradesh?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FOOD PROCESSING INDUSTRIES (SHRI GIRIDHAR GOMANGO): (a) to (c) This Ministry does not set up food processing industries directly in any State. Assistance is provided to the State Governments under the various plan schemes formulated by this Ministry in this sector. Besides, food processing industries have been delicenced subject to the satisfaction of locational conditions and that the item of manufacture is not reserved for small sector. However, as per information available, two proposals were received for setting up of potable alcohol units in Etawah during the period 1989-90. One of these proposals has been rejected and action has been initiated on the other proposal received from M|s. Shanti Chemical Industries.
